

SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT, CHARLES HANLY

On behalf of my fellow Officers, Gunther Perdigao and Henk Jan Dalewijk, and the entire Board of Representatives, I would like to wish you and your families a very joyful holiday season and all the best for the New Year.

Next year is the IPA's 100th anniversary. 2010 will see many festivities all around the globe celebrating the many achievements of our Association over the past century. The IPA centenary will also be an opportunity for renewed outreach activities to ensure that in the next 100 years, psychoanalysis will continue to flourish and to serve our communities. Some of the centenary events are featured in this bulletin and we will be featuring many more in the coming months. With our warm thanks for your continued support and for all your generous contributions which make the IPA a success, all best wishes for a happy centenary year.

Welcome! Your News and Events requested for IPA's new bulletin

This is the first edition of a regular series of Bulletins designed to keep Members up to date with matters of interest in psychoanalysis. If you'd like to tell other Members about events, research developments and cultural activities with an analytic slant click here to find out how.

THE FIRST IPA CONFERENCE IN ASIA, BEIJING 2010

The IPA is taking a major step to further the development of psychoanalysis in Asia by having its first conference in China, on the occasion of its 100th anniversary. The event 'Freud and Asia' will take place in Beijing over 4 days. A number of prominent speakers have already announced their participation.

IPA CENTENARY 2010

A series of worldwide events and celebrations are being planned to mark the IPA's centenary. A full list will be announced shortly, but one day to note in particular is 27 March 2010, when IPA Members will be invited to join in a day of celebrations and community-focussed activities, co-ordinated by IPA Societies, Regional Groups and other IPA organizations. A day-long conference in London, UK, is also being staged on the 27th. Click here for further details.

IPA RESEARCH GRANTS - $70,000 AVAILABLE

Applications are invited from Members and Candidates for projects that address questions of research in psychoanalytically relevant areas. This is an initiative of the IPA's new Committee for the Evaluation of Research Proposals. Please click here for further information and a quick guide to help you complete the online application form.

PLACES AVAILABLE FOR POPULAR RESEARCH TRAINING PROGRAMME

Delegates at the August 2010 RTP in London are able to present and discuss their research projects with IPA Visiting Professors at University College, London. Lectures and seminars will provide an intensive training in empirical and conceptual approaches.

NEW LOOK FOR IPA UNVEILED

You may have noticed the new IPA logo at the top of this Bulletin. Based on the design on the medallion presented to Sigmund Freud on his fiftieth birthday - Oedipus answering the Sphinx - the new logo is a tribute to the IPA's origins as the association looks forward to its centenary next year.

FORTHCOMING EVENTS

"APsaA 2010 National Meeting" : 13-17 January 2010, USA

"IPA Centenary London": 27 March 2010, UK
